I am writing today to encourage your support of HB-41. I believe that it is very important to return the habitat division to the ADF&G where it resided for 50 years prior to ex Gov. Murkowski's unethical move - unethical because as stated on the DNR home page: "What we do: The Department of Natural Resources manages all state-owned land, water and natural resources, except for fish and game, on behalf of the people of Alaska."

Sincerely,
Clark G.

Janice,
Could you ask the Governor if we can put this photo on Yakutat Wild web site.

Under the photo it will read Alaska Governor Sarah Palin and Yakutat Mayor Dave Stone.
By the way, tell her I sent this photo to my brother in Pennsylvania and told him it was a gift from our Governor, he was very impressed.

Thanks
Dave Stone

Young Ambassadors Make Their CEO Debut

In Florence, the average age of the hospitality committee will drop – significantly – as Generation Y enters the mix. Originally founded in 1995 by Simonetta Brandolini d'Adda, the Young Ambassadors program is comprised of the children of YPOers, who come together to provide staff support and serve as an extension of the hospitality committee at "O" events. Since its inauguration in Florence, the group has supported international YPO events in Barcelona, Istanbul, Kyoto, London, Edinburgh, Toronto, Rome, Athens, and Venice, consistently earning high ratings and lavish praise from program attendees. more

2008 Winter Games in St. Moritz - Register Now

Working with Penny Pitou, an Olympic double silver medalist who has led dozens of ski trips in the Alps, Hosts Don and Melrose Burr have developed an exciting program for the 2008 CEO Winter Games. In addition to terrific skiing with great guides, you'll enjoy activities such as: a coffee roasting factory tour and tasting, a dinner in an Alpine Show Cheese Dairy, a Calcutta Race, a casino night, and a disco party in the famous "Cresta Club." The games will be held from 22 February - 1 March 2008 in the elegant old-world resort of St. Moritz, Switzerland. more

Inside Look: Broadway - See a Side of Broadway You've Never Seen Before

Hosts Conrad and Linda Foa have teamed up with son Barrett Foa, a leading Broadway actor, to provide CEOers with a rare glimpse into Broadway theatre from 14-16 April 2008. Set within the Theatre District of New York City, this Inside Look: Broadway will follow the evolution of this complex industry and provide attendees with an insider's perspective of contemporary Broadway. During the day, you'll gain access to legendary theatres and rehearsal studios and hear from leading Broadway experts – from the directors and producers to the cast and crew of award-winning plays and musicals. more

Inside Look: Boston Symphony Orchestra - Experience a Classical Music Lover's Dream Weekend

CEO members, spouses, and adult children are invited to an exclusive and magnificent CEO-only musical experience at Tanglewood, the Boston Symphony Orchestra's (BSO) summer retreat, from 1-3 August 2008. Hosted by CEOer Jim Bildner, who has a long and close association with the BSO, the Inside Look: Boston Symphony Orchestra will immerse you in a community of world-class conductors, acclaimed soloists, and renowned musicians, including the celebrated soprano Renée Fleming, cellist Yo-Yo Ma, and violinist Joshua Bell. more

Latvia Seminar - Make a Difference in the Lives of Youngsters

Join Co-Chairs Eva Christensson and Tam Martin from 23-28 September 2008 for a special visit to Livslust-Dzivesprieks School, an outreach program in Latvia that provides a safe environment where at-risk boys and girls from orphanages, institutions, and dysfunctional or poor families can heal scars, build self-confidence, and acquire skills so they can support themselves when they graduate. For two enriching days, you will interact with students by taking part in activities such as handicrafts and music and sharing your experiences and knowledge of life and culture in your own country. more

address: PO Box 90373 Anchorage AK 99509

MESSAGE:

As a supporter of Defenders of Wildlife and someone who cares about sound wildlife management, I strongly urge you to withdraw your support for the use of aircraft to hunt and kill Alaska's wolves and bears.

Alaska is well known for its amazing wildlife and stunning natural beauty. It is appalling that your office and others in the state government continue to sanction the brutal aerial hunting of the state's majestic wolves and bears in nearly 60,000 square miles of the state.

As I am sure you are aware, aerial hunting was outlawed by the federal government in 1972. Yet Alaska officials continue to skirt the law and permit aerial hunting, claiming that this terrible practice is necessary for wildlife management -- an assertion that is not supported by available data on wildlife population numbers.

This unwarranted program often leads to inhumane deaths, with hunters in low-flying aircraft shooting down wolves or chasing them to exhaustion, and landing and killing the animal at close range. In some cases, wounded wolves escape, only to experience a slow, painful death.

This program is an embarrassment to the State of Alaska. Alaska's voters have twice rejected the use of aircraft by private hunters to kill wolves. It's past time that state officials listen to Alaska's citizens and put an end to this brutal and unnecessary program.

Thank you for considering my comments.

MESSAGE:

Dear Gov.Palin:

My husband and I are writing to you to express are strong opposition to HB 256 we do not agree with this bill or the current Alaska Predator Control Program killing wolves, bears, and potentially wolverines by utilizing aircraft. ALL objective and unbiased Alaskan and National US scientists/wildlife biologists that have reviewed the program have found it to be biologically unsound and ill concieved, including the American Society of Mammologists & US National Science Foundation. Short-term monetary profits for some guide services and the wants of Alaskan urban/ out of state of trophy and sport hunters should not take precedence over long term sound, science based ecological management of our wildlife resources. This program will not put more meat on the table of Alaskan subsistence hunters on a perminent basis; in fact it may cause an over all drop in moose/ caribou populations long term. We will not vote for you for any position now or in the future and will advise our friends/acqua intances to do the same if you continue to support or strengthen the current despicable Alaska Predator Control Program.

Sincerely

Dr. Laura & Joseph Mujica-Crapanzano

Don't know if that got communicated, but it's what Janice did work on. (That's the problem with inquiring about details of events- folks then think I'm showing up.). Maybe Janice can add to this.

Also, if I am able to swing by I doubt it'll be a party of four so don't want them to reserve seats unnecessarily. Thanks

Gov Palin,

The summer you were running, you told me on a radio station that ..."you would not go against an Initiative that had passed by a majority of the voters". You probable remember it too?

Well the aerial wolf hunting was voted on twice and YOU know how it came out.

Now your supporting stances that ARE going against those initiatives.

I hope you give this some serious soul searching. If you keep this stance., IE supporting aerial wolf hunting, I can only conclude you lied on the radio.

BTW, we need our legislature moved to ANC or at least off major route near ANC. What about across the inlet?

Oh, why haven't you moved on my idea about building a Nuclear Power Plant across the inlet.

Oh, the oil companies don't care about us. We need to to take the oil and gas from them..Pay them a little money and DO IT ourselves. Employ just Alaskans for almost ever. Even with the gov inefficiencies the state would be better off.

Sincerely,

Wm Harvey

I still get mixed msgs then on who pays for what. Remember the mess with the student athletes who wanted to visit - I received the very strong msg that the state did NOT pay for hosting (most) receptions or folks would abuse the house usage as just another free venue for their event. (Remeber that's why we used old food, volunteer moms, and donated brownie mix for the teams). It's also why Todd and I have been so hesitant to ever invite anyone over - the rules are murky and I'm not going to risk breaking any unwritten rules because things get leaked and misconstrued. So... I need more definitive rules to follow when it comes to hosting, inviting and feeding guests in the Gov's house. I'm cc-ing Mike(s) so they'll, too, know it's been a year of mixed messages re: what I can and can't do in the house. Thanks

Governor,

Usually events are approved that the Governor or First Gentleman host- then if either of you can't attend, we can ask for the Lt. Governor or a Commissioner to host the event. If you want to approve this request and the Lt. Governor or a Commissioner hosts it that's perfectly fine from the aspect of House protocol. I think the idea is that it limits groups from thinking of the House as just another venue. Hope that answers your question.

Thanks,

Hi! Just for your info… I got a call yesterday from an attorney friend in Juneau who is a big supporter of yours. Says you are doing a good job and are well liked. He compared you to Hammond or Egan with regard to political skookumness. His only concern was that you were becoming isolated from your supporters. He says your staff is keeping your friends away and that he, and others he did not mention, no longer hear from you and are unable to get through. He also was concerned about what he referred to as your reliance on your commissioners. He says his impression is that you aren't managing (or paying enough attention) to what is happening in the various departments that your commissioners are overseeing. I asked for an example and he mentioned the DOT, saying that it is going through "meltdown". I didn't ask for more particulars but if you will recall I sent you a bunch of information about the problems at DOT a number of months ago when I sent you info on Mary Caterinichilo's problems there. My contact did not know that I had done so nor did he know about Mary's problem, but apparently some of the problems I mentioned then about that department are becoming even more apparent to outsiders. His comment was that some/many of the commishs are simply coasting, waiting for when they can retire. Again what is interesting is that at the time I initially sent you the DOT info, Caterinichio made specific reference to the Commish of DOT being in that category. Mary complained that he didn't want to make waves so close to retirement, if I recall.

Just thought you'd like to have this info.

My best, WAR

By the way, your lady was quite prompt in getting back to our son, Greg, on the possibility of your speaking to the National Honor Society. Thanks. After I sent you that request, I realized that it might appear that Greg was a member of the NHS. In fact, Greg is a Social Studies teacher at Mears Junior High and he is in charge of that program.

We have already regretted your attendance on Feb. 27 due to scheduling, so you are NOT required to attend.

This would be a show of support for the organization.

Also listed as "honorary co-hosts" for this year's event are: Sens Murkowski and Stevens, Rep. Young and Mayor Begich.

For last year's event, all of the same individuals were listed as co-hosts, but you were the only one to actually attend.

Dear Governor Palin,

I am a Christian, wife of a retired military officer, Mom, former public school teacher & currently home school our three children. I have been a resident of MN, ND, AZ, & NY. I KNOW firsthand the effects of illegal immigrants on safety (I was almost assaulted by illegal farm workers while I was in college), had them try to break into my house in AZ, saw them overrun the schools & clinics in AZ. I also saw what BIG government did to nice places in upstate NY. Please tell me that you do not support John McCain & his amnesty ways. It is anti-American that we as Christians cannot be heard because of McCain/Feingold prior to elections when such matters need to be fresh in people's minds. Huckabee may have been a pastor, but he certainly does not seem to be conservative either in many ways. Yet, the news reports you as saying you would like to speak to McCain & Huckabee, what about Mitt Romney? Though I do not see eye to eye w/ Romney on everything including his religious affiliati on, but he is pro-life & he is strong on immigration & the economy. The most CONSERVATIVE candidate still in the race. I wish the others were as concerned about reaching the conservatives in their party as they are about embracing the democrat agenda. I hope you read this as well as the attached link & I would appreciate a repsonse.

Sincerely, Karen Bembenek

Hi

Cathy Giessel told me they (she and the rest of us except Randy probably) would like you to come open the convention and also talk at the Friday evening dinner. I met today with Joe Miller and Ralph Seekins. We were thinking it would be nice if you could open the convention and give a (little or big) hint that Randy needs to go. We are planning to vote to suspend the rules and vote him out. Cathy G. would make a great chairman and would be willing. It would really add a lot of momentum if you would give a hint in your opening speech. The pieces are in place now to be rid of him. We were always missing someone willing to take his place and in Cathy we have that. I hear Randy is afraid of the Ron Paul people who will likely be there in great numbers and they do not like Randy. With them to swell our ranks, the numbers look to be there. Ralph Seekins will be running for National Committeeman against Glen Clary, Randy's puppet. If Randy stays as the Chair, the party will continue to deteriorate.

Forget McCain & Romney; Why Not Sarah Palin for President?

After all, what's not to like about the talented, smart and efficient woman governor of Alaska?

That's what Alaskan voters of both parties conclude anyhow -- Sarah Palin, the youngest and the first female governor of the state, has been given approval ratings as high as 93%. Wow.

Those kind of numbers show Palin as not only the most popular governor in the nation but, almost certainly, one of the most popular politicians around.

Palin's high esteem comes from her eloquence, her energy and the fact that she brought character and integrity into what had been a torrid storm of political corruption in Alaska. Also, her support for government reform and the introduction of much-needed gas pipeline legislation have been winning the governor enthusiastic applause.

Governor Palin has a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Idaho but, thank goodness, she lives her life with much more common sense than most in that profession. Palin is the wife of a commercial fisherman and the mother of four children, the eldest of which joined the U.S. Army last fall. Palin is also a former beauty queen, cheerleader, musician, mayor, and was a point guard for the Wasilla High School Warriors when they won the state basketball championship in 1982.

And, oh yes, Sarah Palin is a lifetime member of the National Rifle Association and a strong defender of the sanctity of human life.

So, since John McCain and Mitt Romney have ended up as the choices produced by the primary system but both of these fellows are displeasing, perhaps even unacceptable, to many in the G.O.P., is it all that remarkable to look elsewhere? In the direction of Senator Tom Coburn? Senator Jon Kyl? Senator Sam Brownback? Senator Jim DeMint? Congressman Chris Smith? Congressman Mike Pence? Congressman Jeff Flake?

Or yes, Governor Sarah Palin?

One doesn't have to pay for wishes.

Governor,

I've attached updated talking points from the departments on Kenai River regs. They are too extensive for yours or my general use but they provide a lot of good meat for Sharon and others should people ask. I believe Tom is taking the lead on press, but thought you'd want to be armed.

I think the message is fairly simple: The regs protect the environmental quality of a valuable resource and we wanted more public comment on the outright ban of 2 strokes to determine whether we were over-regulating or creating an unreasonable burden on the moms and pops (who would have to go buy another engine).

Before sending messages to the Gov it would be a good idea to get a hold of Mike or me. Mike and I have been in meetings the entire day. I did get your message when I came out of the meetings. Privileged or Personal Material

For folks to suggest that the Governor is racist or not supportive of rural Alaska is far from accurate. Look at her family! The Governor made decisions to put the best people that we could find on a variety of boards including the BOG. We have every confidence that these people will work for all Alaskans. Additionally, there are two more vacancies on the BOG that will occur in 12 months, so maybe we can solicit for names and get a few solid candidates from the native community for the Governor to consider in the future.

I am sorry you feel the position you are in is bogus, I don't see it that way. I have been attempting through our discussions to give you the lay of the land on how things work best for the office and the most affective way to convey information to the Governor that is the most useful to her. So for you to conclude what you have about the job your in is a bit premature at best.

I hope we will continue to work for the best results for this office and to support the Governor the best we can.

Please. I would like to have some one respond to me about the Board of Game appointments.

This is a test to me of whether this job of Rural Advisor is truly a position -- or bogus.
It appears to me that it is bogus, since I was not consulted in a decision of huge magnitude to Alaska Natives.

This decision will cause the governor a huge amount of ill will -- especially with AGIA hanging in the balance.

Rural lawmakers were very helpful to her last year, but these appointments will be bitterly contested.

I certainly could have helped find some. Or was this a done deal to begin with?

I am disappointed that I was not consulted. And find it unacceptable that I was left out of a decision of this magnitude.

Subsistence is the heart of Rural Alaska. Nothing could be more important. Nothing will cause more trouble than these appointments.

MESSAGE:

Dear Governor Palin,

I am a Christian, wife of a retired military officer, Mom, former public school teacher & currently home school our three children. I have been a resident of MN, ND, AZ, & NY. I KNOW firsthand the effects of illegal immigrants on safety (I was almost assaulted by illegal farm workers while I was in college), had them try to break into my house in AZ, saw them overrun the schools & clinics in AZ. I also saw what BIG government did to nice places in upstate NY. Please tell me that you do not support John McCain & his amnesty ways. It is anti-American that we as Christians cannot be heard because of McCain/Feingold prior to elections when such matters need to be fresh in people's minds. Huckabee may have been a pastor, but he certainly does not seem to be conservative either in many ways. Yet, the news reports you as saying you would like to speak to McCain & Huckabee, what about Mitt Romney? Though I do not see eye to eye w/ Romney on everything including his religious affiliati on, but he is pro-life & he is strong on immigration & the economy. The most CONSERVATIVE candidate still in the race. I wish the others were as concerned about reaching the conservatives in their party as they are about embracing the democrat agenda. I hope you read this as well as the attached link & I would appreciate a repsonse.

Sincerely, Karen Bembenek

Subject: use of the Governor's house

Governor,

House resources are provided for both the personal and official use of the First Family. You may host or approve any breakfast, lunch, dinner, tea, reception, or event to be held at the House and at state expense for all but a few exceptions. If you or the First Gentleman are not available to host an event either of you have approved, another state official, i.e., the Lt. Governor, departmental commissioner, or other state official may host on your behalf.

The following are the historical exceptions to state paid events:

When a political group has requested an event at the House, the group reimburses or pays directly for any costs associated with the event. (One thing to note is that you would need to approve similar event requests from all political parties. For instance you could not approve requests made by Republican groups and deny request from a Democratic group). This does NOT preclude you from inviting members of one particular political group to the House at state expense. For example, hosting the CCRW for tea, or lunch or inviting a particular legislative caucus for dinner. The distinction is when a partisan political group requests to use the House for their event or purpose. If the request is approved, the state is reimbursed any costs.

Another exception is when an organization, political or otherwise, uses the House for fund-raising purposes, i.e., the Friends of the Mansion Foundation fundraising receptions and events.

The last exception is use of the House or House resources for purely personal reasons unrelated to the First Family living there. An example of personal use would be a wedding at the House. There have been a few occasions where a wedding has taken place at the House but always at the expense of the bride and groom.

Historically all events at the House are approved by the Governor or First Spouse. That prevents the House from being used or perceived as being available as a free venue for organizations or special events.

I hope this helps clarify things.

Subject: latest and greatest...look for it this Sunday

AGIA remains the subject of a healthy debate. Many see it as a brilliant strategy, while some critics assure us that no project can move forward without the consent of North Slope Producers. Time will prove AGIA's merits, and one thing is for certain; during her first year in office, Governor Palin has blazed the trail for Alaska 's first truly open and competitive process for building a natural gas pipeline.

In the broadest sense, AGIA is designed to do two things: Move a project forward on a predictable timeline, and ensure an open-access pipeline. Nothing prevents Conoco Phillips from building a gasline – nor has anything prevented them for the past several decades. And yet, they have chosen not to. In their current public relations tour, Conoco makes it very clear that they do not require any of the incentives offered under AGIA. Why would the state want to give away $500 million when they will consider moving a project forward right now?! Never mind that this is all contingent on a number of preconditions.

Conoco Phillips only wants one thing for this seemingly irresistible offer – to sit down again and discuss fiscal terms. But they did not suggest in their proposal what these terms might be. When this was pointed out in the Governor's recent letter to CEO, James Mulva, Conoco Phillips responded that they do in fact have some terms in mind, and they would be happy to share these in private just as soon as the Governor is ready to sit down and negotiate. Although the Governor goes on to explain in her letter why this is no longer a viable alternative, Conoco chooses to ignore it.

The Governor also asked in her letter why Conoco chose not to commit their gas to their proposed project. What is interesting about Conoco's answer is that they do not answer the question. Instead, Conoco takes the opportunity to point out that TransCanada hasn't committed gas in their AGIA license application. Never mind the fact that TransCanada is not a gas producer and has no gas to commit – And never mind the fact that a gas commitment is the single largest thing Conoco could do to lessen the project risk and move a project forward.

The questions people should be asking are, why? Why would Conoco Phillips choose to keep the project risk high? And why, if Conoco Philips needs none of the state incentives to move forward, would they make no effort to do so? And why would they choose to make their "proposal" public, just the day before AGIA's application deadline? In my mind, the answer is clear: fear. Conoco does not want the state to issue an AGIA license. They do not want a project to move forward on the state's aggressive timeline and they do not want an open access pipeline.

In reality, I do not believe Conoco is at all surprised that their "proposal" has not been taken seriously. It would be quite clear to anyone who has actually taken the time to read the document. Compared to any of the serious AGIA applications received by the state, it is a grade-schooler's guide to gasline risk. Conoco Philips is engaged in nothing more than an expensive campaign to obfuscate the AGIA process, and fuel the public's hope that after so many failed negotiations and stonewalling, the producers are finally ready to build us a gasline.

Unfortunately, Conoco Phillips' effort has been quite successful in their attempt to take attention from the AGIA process. Radio hosts, former statewide candidates, and other critics are swept along in the frenzy, but use their positions to level personal attacks on AGIA supporters, rather than debate the true merits of public policy. As this chapter continues to unfold, I would encourage Conoco to work with the Palin Administration towards our mutual goal of getting Alaska 's North Slope gas to market. And as for the rest, let's keep our dialogue civilized.
